

Like a Storm

Like a storm love moves in
Rapid change the rain begins
Bright blue skies turn to gray
Lasts for days after days
Fights begin thunder arrives
Lightning strikes the clouds roll by
The rain is hard and turns to hail
Time to decide when to bail
Thunder's crack like canon's fire
Accused of being the true liar
Time to flee and run to cover
Must stay true to one another
Lover's quarrel like storm may brake
Mine was pure yours was fake
Blue skies to gray good times to bad
Thinking about the times we had
Before the spring storm rolled in Love's like a storm that must begin
